Leaving from Beijing to Moscow

“Couldn’t we have the two best en-route stops”, you asked us, “but with more time in each one?” “What a great chance to get to the Gobi Desert!” we answered, and “The Epic Trans-Sib” was born. The highlight here, obviously, is getting to Erdenezuu, in Bayan-Gobi. It’s built on the site of Genghis Khan’s former Great Encampment (“Kuriltai”), and modern “Harhorin” is actually Karakorum. But don’t let your eyes miss the other goody here – some super Baikal activity options which include trekking.

In the know

Genghis Khan's name is correctly spelt "Chinghiskhan", although his name at birth was Temujin. Despite his reputation for ferocity, the oldest annals of Mongolian history reveal he was frightened of dogs.

"Siberia" means "the sleeping land" and isn't a Russian word – it comes from the Tartar name for the area, "Sibir".

Lake Baikal is the world's largest, and has more statistics than any other lake.

The word "Kremlin" isn't Russian – it's from a medieval Tartar word meaning "fortress". There used to be kremlins all over Russia in the days when the Mongols were a threat. There's even one in Siberia, at Tobolsk.

No ordinary trip

At The Russia Experience we like to ditch the clichés, discard the puff and concentrate on what we do best – bringing to life the world's longest train route: the places visited, the encounters made and the realisation of a journey that is both engaging and rewarding.

We continually look at ways of enhancing the Trans Siberian experience, incorporating seasonal considerations (such as the Harbin Ice Festival), providing the historical context (pay a visit to the only remaining Soviet Gulag) or inviting you to savour the diverse cultural influences of indigenous people (sit down with a shaman, or enjoy the Siberian art of throat singing!).

We have no group departures, our advertised dates always operate (barring anything completely out of our control) and, above all, we will tell you it like it is – allowing you to make the right choice from a portfolio of journeys rich in variety and full of memorable experiences. Sorry! We couldn't resist at least one cliché!

Visa Requirements

Most visitors to China, Mongolia and Russia require visas. These must be obtained prior to departure. Visa processing times for these countries can be up to;

China	07 Working Days
Mongolia	06 Working Days
Russia	10 Working Days

However fast track processing is possible.

Due to the support documents required by the Embassy of Russia (which we obtain), you will need to book your trip before starting to obtain visas.

For full information regarding visas, please refer to our web site.

Hints and Tips

A SPECIAL NOTE ABOUT NOMAD STAYS
When we say "nomad stay" it means exactly that - you are sharing the lives of herdsmen who live on the Mongolian Steepe. There's often no electricity, they don't speak English, and there isn't any plumbing!

Photocopy your passport including the visas issued pages, airline tickets and insurance policies.

Your passport must be valid for at least six months past the end of your travel dates.

Travellers Checklist

Day pack, back pack, money belt, first aid kit, heat proof mug, instant coffee, tea bags, sun hat, mosquito repellent, lightweight jacket, flip flops, swim wear, sun cream, warm waterproof, walking boots, universal sink plug, bottle opener, photographs of home to show the Nomads. Mongolian children love bubbles!

Leaving from Beijing to Moscow

DAY 01

On arrival in Beijing you make your own way to the hotel – any taxi driver will quickly find the address. The convenient location of the hotel positions you to get the most of this legendary Imperial city, where the rich traditions of Buddhism, Daoism, and Confucianism meet with the opulence of the Chinese Emperors and the vibrant realism of contemporary China. Chinese hotels cope badly with the idea of foreigners who haven't yet arrived so we'll have your onward rail tickets delivered once you have checked in, with user hint and, directions to the station. The hotel is in the heart of the golden area of the capital, surrounded by major business centres, tourist attractions and only minutes away from the Wangfujing Street, Tiannamen Square and the Forbidden City.

No meals

DAY 02

Make your own way to the station giving yourself at least one hour on arrival to complete security (metal-detectors are now in force and there can be queues to use them) and find your train and platform. And then you're heading off, along the most famous railway in the world!

Breakfast

DAY 03

Early afternoon arrival in Ulaanbaatar. Our driver will meet you at the end of the platform and will be holding a meeting-board with your name on. Transfer from the station to a hotel with a chance freshen up and have a light snack before departing for your city tour. Then transfer to Elstei Ger Lodge (70km). With a scheduled stop at the enormous monument to Genghis Khan along the way. It may not be quite traditional in style (since it's made of stainless steel) but it's an astounding edifice and a testament to Genghis's place in Mongolian culture (astonishingly the Communists tried to write him out of official history text-books). Taking the elevator to top of this 10 metre high monument you visit the exhibition hall from where you will have an excellent panoramic view over the complex area and the scenery beyond. A relaxed evening in the bar after supper there are occasional impromptu performances of live Mongolian music, where you might hear the Morin Khuur (horse-head lyre), the cimbalom, or native Mongolian throat-singing.

Light Snack, Supper

DAY 04

With no specific activities planned you can choose to chill out, read, sunbathe, go walking, or (for a small payment made directly to them locally) you can go horse riding with local nomad horsemen.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

DAY 05

After breakfast you will depart for the Bayangobi region. Picnic lunch en-route. Arrival at a herdsman encampment late afternoon. Tonight you are the guests of the herdsman, and you'll stay in a nomadic ger tent.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

DAY 06

Depart after breakfast for a day trip through the countryside of Övörkhangai Province in the direction of Harhorin (two hours of off-road driving each way). Our route takes us into the Orkhon Valley, a World Heritage Site, which can be called the birthplace of Mongolian civilisation – the sites of the earliest metal working (which created the weapons that made the Mongolian empire great) are located here. We stop for a picnic lunch amid the stunning scenery. This afternoon we arrive at modern Harhorin – the settlement Genghis Khan would have known as Karakorum. It was here at the legendary gathering of clans that they declared Genghis the "Great Khan" ("Chinghiskhan"), and his military campaigns of conquest began. Nothing is left of the ancient settlement, but on its site is the (rather later) monastery of Erdene Zuu, one of the most important Buddhist centres in Mongolia and on the grounds of the monastery is the single turtle statue that remains of Genghis's great Royal Court. Come back to our nomadic host family and will have a traditional supper.
